Fee: Because of the Carnegie Community Centre’s policy to not charge fees for programs at its facilities, this leadership training will be provided in exchange for an in-kind service or donation. If you are chosen to take the leadership training we will have a conversation to work out together the nature of this in-kind service or donation. We are open to suggestions. For example: contribute a written piece; media documentation; web site content; a special food donation; administrative, creative, technical or outreach assistance; an art work or project; or perhaps a workshop for the Downtown Eastside community. Or?

- What ideas do you have of a service that you could offer in exchange for the training?

Leadership Training Application- Friday October 8, 5pm. Mailed applications must be received by this date.
